

"Mojo Lemon Blues Band has been a staple in the Western Wisconsin music scene for a decade. Mojo's trademark "in your face" blues rock shows have become legendary in the Chippewa Valley. Josh Entzminger on guitar and vocals, "Mojo Terry" Demars on bass and vocals, Will Chopper on keys and vocals and "Big J" Introwitz on drums and vocals round out the blues-rock powerhouse that is Mojo Lemon. The band has shared both local and regional success both as a supporting act and headlining. Got Mojo?"

The Weekly Bluesletter

A Little About the Blues

It seems like only last week we began this experiment called Tuesday Night Blues on the River at Owen Park with the threat of rain and a decision to go ahead or cancel Howard Luedtke and Blue Max. I'm glad we decided to go ahead that chilly May evening. Alas 15 weeks have passed as quickly as water over a dam or wind through the trees on a warm summer's night, and the first season of this concert series has slipped into history.

You came that first night and kept coming though the weather that always seemed to threaten on Tuesday. We have had a great variety of excellent musicians and performers and, it turned out, the portion we were most unsure of, back in the dark days of planning this whole thing, a growing and loyal fan base, YOU!

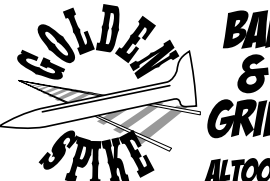

Without you, coming week in and week out, bringing umbrellas if need be, and a great desire to share this wonderful, joyful noise we call the blues, we could not have continued. Thank You for coming and showing us we were right in our belief that if we put forward the music you would be their to absorb, enjoy and radiate back the pleasure and appreciation. The musicians, from Mojo and Left Wing Bourbon to Ellen Whyte and the Blues Dogs could feel the "love" you responded with. The "Young Blues" men and women got their first taste of a responsive and appreciative crowd, and I'm sure we will see and hear from them again.

This column "History Of The Blues" was intended to be an educational element in keeping with our charter as a non-profit organization. We hope it has brought some insight of the men and women that came before and helped create or refine the genre in their individual experience and interpretation along the way to what we understand it as now. Mostly the pleasure and maybe some pain of losing ourselves from the daily pressures and stresses most of us endure. A few hours to just enjoy the rhythm and the sound and the community of others in the same mind set. Thanks for sharing this with us.

It is our plan to bring Tuesday Night Blues back in 2010, every Tuesday from Memorial Day to Labor Day. We are all hoping that you will be there once again.

Please remember to patronize our sponsors and let them know you appreciate them for it.

About the Series

The event you're attending this evening was the brainstorm of several Blues Society members during the non-stop drizzle at Coalition Blues 2008. What was originally intended to be a once a month get-together quickly evolved to a weekly community event and will hopefully flourish and continue for years to come. What we hoped to accomplish throughout the summer is to give the people of Eau Claire and the Chippewa Valley somewhere to gather and unwind, while presenting some of the finest blues bands from throughout the area at no charge. We feel as though we accomplished just that this year. So sit back and enjoy the outdoors and one more night of music with your family and friends.

This series was made possible through the generous donations of the sponsors, whose names are contained within this flyer. If you like what you're hearing and would like to show your appreciation, please do so by giving them your patronage. And if you know of someone who would like to be a sponsor next year, please let us know.

The Chippewa Valley is teeming with great live music no matter what your tastes are. Whether you decide to become a member of the Blues Society, pick up one of the CDs offered by the bands, or just sit back and show your appreciation by applauding, your attendance at today's event is greatly appreciated. Thank you.
